

Golf Adjunct game at Wainuiomata Golf Club on Sunday 23 March 2025.

A great day was had at the Wainuiomata Golf Club on Sunday 23 March. There was a full field of 40 players playing off the white tees. Once again, the weather came to the party. In the first month at Karori we had 23 turnout, then we had 36 at Shandon and now 40 at Wainuiomata - including a new Golf Adjunct member. So, yes - the Golf Adjunct is going great guns. Kaboom!

As well as Wainuiomata Golf Club for hosting us, we'd also like to thank the following:

- those of you who provided wine bottles and other accoutrements
- the Johnsonville Club for the Bar Vouchers.
- Lloyd MacIntyre – Churton Finishers for donating the set of wrenches.
- Regifting.com
- Everyone who helped out on the day to make it such a success.

The raffle proved particularly popular with the punters. Lots of prizes all around.

Our Congratulations go to following winners and commiserations to our unlucky losers (none more so than Kelvin Tait who was unable to play due to a bad back - we wish Kelvin a speedy recovery.

The next game is at Foxton Golf Club on Sunday 13 April. This will come around very soon so get your entries in quick smart please. This event does not include the Matchplay quarterfinals – which will re-convene in June.

NB: Annual Golf Adjunct Subscriptions are now due ($20) so please get these paid at the Johnsonville Club Bar (and get a receipt as well) or online. It's well into the season now so all those who haven't paid by the end of March 2025 will be named and shamed on Heja (which, in Swedish, apparently means "Come on – let's go").

We are still looking for volunteers to perform our duties on Thursday 17th April (2 volunteers required) and Saturday 19th April (2 volunteers required) – so can you please step up to the plate.

See you at Foxton Golf Club on Sunday 13 April with bells on.
